The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 1, to Saturday August 5, 1780.

St. James's, August 5.

THE following Addreſs of the Freemen and Inhabitants of the City of Coventry, having been tranſmitted by the Lord Viſcount Wentworth to the Lord Viſcount Stormont, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to the King: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freemen and Inhabitants of the City of Coventry.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

RELIEVED from that accumulated Load of Anxiety, in which we are perſuaded your Royal Boſom muſt have ſuſtained no ordinary Share, whilſt the Horrors of a diſtant Rebellion were inexpreſſibly heightened by the unparalleled Outrages of a domeſtick Inſurrection; it is with the warmeſt Tranſport of Loyalty and Affection that we now preſent ourſelves before the Throne, and congratulate your Majeſty upon the ſignal Succeſs wherewith Divine Providence hath been pleaſed to bleſs thoſe ſeaſonable and well concerted Meaſures of Force, which a watchful Regard for the Safety of the whole Britiſh Empire had, in either Inſtance, conſtrained its Monarch to adopt.

Should the vigorous Exertions and important Advantages, which have ſo glorioufly diſtinguiſhed the Progreſs of the preſent Campaign, fail to convince our Adverſaries of the Folly of attempting to ſhake off their juſt Dependance on the Parent State, we are ſtill ready to contribute to the utmoſt of our Power toward the further Proſecution of ſo neceſſary a War: — At the ſame Time, Sire, Humanity will not ſuffer us to ſuppreſs our moſt ſanguine Wiſhes that the Public Tranquility may be reſtored by ſome gentler Method; that the liberal Overtures of Pardon and Protection, which your Majeſty hath repeatedly vouchſafed to hold forth, may even yet obtain the deſired Effect; and that a calm and compaſſionate Review of the Ruin and Devaſtation in which their paſt Miſconduct hath involved their wretched Country, may determine the revolted Provinces to a ſpeedy and unanimous Return to Duty and Allegiance, and diſpoſe them to a cordial Reconciliation with Great Britain.

So ſhall no future Conteſt ſubſiſt between us, ſave that only commendable one, which Side of the Atlantic ſhall exhibit the moſt conſpicuous Proofs of Fidelity to their Common Sovereign, of Submiſſion to the legal Injunctions of Parliament, and of an ardent Zeal for the Preſervation and Perpetuity of our moſt excellent Conſtitution.

[The above Addreſs was ſigned by 888 of the Freemen and Inhabitants.]
